

CompTIA®

CompTIA Inc. is an international non-profit organization based in USA offering certifications in IT Fundamentals, Network+, Security+, Security Analyst+, PenTest+, Cloud+, Linux+. etc

UiPath Academy is the world's first open online platform for FREE Robotic Process Automation training and certification where virtually anybody in the world can join and learn how to use UiPath professionally.

ORACLE

Oracle Academy's free program offers expertly developed learning resources and world-class industry technologies for individual students and educators, and comprehensive computer science academic curriculum and learning resources for secondary schools, technical/vocational schools, and two and four-year colleges.

AWS in Education provides a set of programs that enable the academic community to easily leverage the benefits of Amazon Web Services for teaching and research. With AWS in Education, educators, academic researchers, and students can apply to obtain free usage credits to tap into the on-demand infrastructure of Amazon Web Services to teach advanced courses, tackle research endeavors and explore new projects.

Salesforce Trailhead is an online learning platform with free, self-paced, bite-sized content that gives everyone the tools to learn the technologies and skills necessary to land a great job in today's workforce, regardless of where you live and what your background may be.