We are fortunate to have the constitutional right to vote. We take it for granted, but the constitution guarantees us the right to vote for whom we want and to change our minds. Your vote has the potential to make a significant difference. You can vote for a better government if you are dissatisfied with the current one. When the national attitude changes from thinking "my vote doesn't make a difference", then the numbers increase and a multitude of people voting will make the difference. The responsibility lies on every individual. The Indian government has made it possible for voters to cast their ballots even if they are unsatisfied with any of the candidates.
