Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	From the department of Commerce, Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science & Commerce, students have organized a case study analysis to enhance financial understanding and strategic decision-making. This initiative aimed to evaluate real-world scenarios, identify best practices, and foster collaboration among team members. The primary objectives of the case study analysis included, Assessing the financial impact of specific business decisions, understanding industry trends and their implications for the company, Encouraging critical thinking and problem-solving skills among team members. This activity proved to be an effective tool for professional development and strategic insight. By learning from real-world scenarios, team members are better equipped to contribute to the organization's financial health and strategic direction. Future analyses will continue to build on this foundation, driving continuous improvement within the team. There ere total of 36 Participants and the winner of the event was Mr. Vignesh From 3rd Beom E Section and Runners of the event were Ms. Rakshitha M and Ms. Usha S from 3rd BCOM A section.
