19.	Summary of the Event (Minimum 100 words)	A short speech competition session on Mahatma Gandhi, was organized for 1st year MBA students on 18th May 2023 at 9.15 am in MBA (BU) classroom. The session aimed to provide a platform for students to express their understanding of Gandhi's teachings and their relevance to the field of business and management. The participants delivered their speeches, with each student allotted a specific time limit of 3 minutes after preparation of 10 minutes. They expressed their perspectives, insights, and understanding of Gandhi's teachings, connecting them to the world of business and management. The presentations were followed by a brief question-and-answer session to facilitate further discussions and clarifications. The session deepened the participants' understanding of Gandhi's philosophy and its relevance to the field of business and management. It encouraged critical thinking and reflection on applying his teachings in professional contexts. Also, the participants had an opportunity to improve their public speaking and presentation skills by articulating their thoughts and ideas effectively within the given time constraints. The session inspired and motivated the MBA students to embrace Gandhi's principles of leadership, ethics, and service in their future careers. It highlighted the importance of integrating spirituality and ethical values into business practices.
