

Buddha Study Centre Activity

Title: “PAWS & TAILS”

Date: 12th October, 2022

Resource Person: Dr. Ameer Asra Ahmed & Dr. Kadambini Katke

Topics Covered:

- To create awareness among about the Buddha philosophy towards treating animals kindly and do no harm to animals.
- Create awareness among the college students on how to take care of stray dogs.
- To instil the core values of Buddhism like one’s concern for the welfare of animals to reduce their suffering and misery.

Summary

Buddhism ranks as one of the greatest peace-loving religions not only in Asia but all over the world. It insists upon values of knowledge and evil of ignorance. Buddhism enjoys the glory of having rightly judged the intrinsic greatness of man’s capacity to work out his salvation, thus stressing the power of the individual to pursue excellence. Buddha Study Centre at Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science & Commerce aims to instil the core values of Buddhism like one’s concern for the welfare of man to eliminate human and animal suffering and misery and to lead the society towards integrity and dignity of existence.

As a part of Buddha study centre street play programmes were organized on Buddha philosophy titled “PAWS & TAILS” was conducted on 12th March, 2022 for MBA 2nd Semester students. The students were briefed about the purpose and objectives of the Buddha study centre. Pet Rescue Centres have been working hard to take care of these homeless animals. They have been feeding them good food, proper shelter, regular vaccines, medical check-ups. There are animals that have been injured severely due to accidents on roads, construction sites, stuck in drainage etc. which need special medical treatments taken care by these centres. Hence, the students were briefed about the pain and suffering of stray animals on the streets and shelters and the care and attention that they need in order to survive.

Organized by: Buddha Study Centre

Venue: DSI Campus

Faculty Attended: 02

Students Attended: 60

Photos:

Photo 1: MBA Students briefing school kids about the ways to help and rescue street animals

Photo 2: Students projecting the ways to overcome sufferings of animals through videos

Photo 3: Students presenting the details of various pet rescue centres across Bangalore

Photo 4: Students demonstrating the role of students in rescuing street animals