23.	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The Department of Computer Applications (MCA) organized an educational visit to IIM Bangalore on February 20, 2024, for the MCA III Semester students. This visit aimed to inspire students in the fields of computer science, management, and general science. Accompanied by four faculty members and one office staff, the students were transported to IIM Bangalore via the college buses. During the visit, students explored the library, where various research papers were on display. They also toured the conference hall and auditorium and engaged in insightful interactions with the professors and students of IIM Bangalore. The visit concluded with the students and faculty returning to the college by bus. The experience was both educational and enjoyable, offering valuable learning opportunities and fostering camaraderie among participants.
