Internal Quality Assurance Cell

Research and IPR Cell (Anveshana)

Annual Report of the cell (June 2019-May 2020)

During this year we expected quite a good number of Research activities, however due to the Covid - 19 pandemics we shifted from formal offline programs to online webinars. Even in covid we could engage our faculty and students by having the following research seminars and webinars. The faculties are provided with how to tap online programs and certifications. Students and faculties are made aware of various online research tools, Machine learning tools, Applications of AI in Healthcare, and the new norm after the Covid through the activities mentioned in the table below.
