Companies who invest in developing their managers' emotional intelligence will see these behaviors demonstrated:

- They are able to listen to others without jumping to conclusions
- They are able to admit to their mistakes and take personal accountability
- They are able to remain calm under pressure and keep everyone around them calm
- They are able to receive feedback and criticism without becoming defensive
- When coaching, they connect to the emotions that drive people's behaviors
- They do not avoid difficult conversations and are able to hold people accountable in a motivating way
