All of our college's programmes follow the stated vision and Mission, and they all comply with the CBCS framework for education. As of 2020, all of our programmes are in compliance with the NEP plan because we are affiliated with Bangalore University. Naturally, students are free to take up for interdisciplinary courses as part of their programmes. The IQAC also supports events and conversations in multidisciplinary domains for all students and faculty.
16.Academic bank of credits (ABC):
We do follow Academic bank of credits initiative.
17.Skill development:
Our college is making substantial efforts to incorporate the UGC's Skill Based Education into the National Skills Qualifications Framework. From the college end, work is still being done toward an NSQF level-9 M.Voc in information technology.
18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge	e system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

Our institution is an affiliation college associated with Bangalore University, and programme syllabi typically include the essentials of the subject matter. As a result, it is bit difficult to incorporate the Indian Knowledge system in any way. However, through a variety of activities and events, our IQAC cell centers-namely, the Language and Literary cell, the Student Activity cell, the Yoga cell and Meditation cell-all endeavor to integrate the Indian Knowledge System. Justification can be found in the links below from our institution's website.

19. Focus on Outcome based education (OBE): Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

All of the programmes at our institution are outcome-based. Every department has well defined POs, COs, and PSOs. The relevant links are shown below.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

The Curriculum is designed by the Bangalore University through its Board of Studies and Academic Council. The affiliated colleges implement the same. University makes provision for the appointment of teachers as BoE and Committee members. Faculty members also enrich themselves by attending Orientation Programs, FDPs, Seminars, and Conferences.

Initiatives taken for effective curriculum delivery:

- Academic Calendar and Diary are maintained. It is cross checked by the coordinator periodically.
- The college encourages teachers to prepare Lesson Plans which provide space for planning the lessons, and make note of effective classroom strategies to be adopted, time allocation, etc.
- Well provided library and Inflibnet facility also ensure opportunities for effective curriculum delivery.

- Student feedback on learning, teaching and curriculum forms a component of a system for quality improvement.
- Confirming to the stakeholders that the college is committed to the achievement and maintenance of effective teaching and learning.

Examples of effective implementation of curriculum:

Hands on Training - The Students are made aware of the curriculum through practical experience.

Academic and Industrial Linkage benefits the students to gain hands-on experience of how industry operations are executed, bridge the gap between theoretical and practical learning in a real-life environment. It enhances interpersonal and communication skills.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

The calendar of events would be regularly provided by University to the different departments. Every department adheres to the academic calendar provided by the university with little or no deviations whatsoever. This academic calendar along with the syllabus scheme acts as guidelines to the various departments for the Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE). The CIE comprises of two components namely i) Internal Assessment Marks and ii) Semester end exams. The Academic calendar comprises of the dates for conduction of internal tests and semester exams. The university syllabus scheme provides the various components for the Internal Assessment for certain marks which vary from department to department. The different components for IA assessment are Attendance of students for 5 marks, internal tests for 10 marks, Student assignments for 5 marks, Student presentations for 5 marks, Books or Journal article reviews for 5 marks or Case study preparation for 10 marks and Mini project for 10 marks. Suitable components of internal assessment are considered depending upon whether the students are in their 1st year, 2nd year or 3rd year of their respective courses.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Programme and course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website and communicated to teachers and students.

The Department has outlined the Program's and all of its Courses' learning objectives in explicit terms. The department uses the following method to inform teachers and students of the learning objectives.

- For the convenience of the teachers and students, hard copies of the syllabi and learning outcomes are available in the departments.
- For reference, a soft copy of the curriculum and the learning outcomes for each programme and course are also uploaded on the college website.
- The teachers were informed of the significance of the learning objectives during department meetings at the beginning of each semester.
- Through the department's induction programme, the students are also made aware of the same.
- The teachers of each course inform the students of the course objectives at the beginning of the course along with the syllabus.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

Using the established course outcomes as a guide, the faculty uses a continuous evaluation procedure to track each student's progress.

A few of the most important measures of accomplishment are:

1. University examination for the semester: As a Bangalore University-affiliated institution, Dayananda Sagar College of Art, Science, and Commerce students are required to sit for exams according to the semester and annual schedules established by the university. Through these exams, the college evaluates the program's success based on the students' course attainment levels, which are set by the programme. 2. Practical Assessment/External Assessment: It is reviewed by asking outside professionals who have been appointed by the institution to assess each student by doing Viva-Voce interviews, performing practical examinations, and examining practical files. 3. Results Analysis: At the conclusion of each semester, each course's results are analyzed using bar charts that show the proportion of students that fall into certain CGPA categories. 4. This is a useful indication for determining whether POs, PSOs, and COs are meeting the university's requirements for level of accomplishment. 5. Placements and Internships: Students are encouraged to participate in fieldwork, projects, internships, etc. The college's placement cell assists and polishes pupils in accordance with industry standards and offers plenty of chances for students to land jobs in prestigiousbusinesses.

3.4 - Extension Activities

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR), is a potent tool for fostering a sense of civic duty in students and making a positive impact on society.13 activities were held, helping 464 students overall. The actions carried out by ISR were diverse and planned, concentrating on important societal concerns: Health and Hygiene, Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, Students participated and helped to keep the surrounding a better and healthier place by raising awareness and acting to clean up their surroundings. Hospital visits: Visiting hospital patients is a very humane gesture. In addition to providing solace for the ill and old, it teaches students empathy and the need of helping those in need. Donations to Orphanages: Students help needy children by contributing food, medication, and school supplies to orphanages. Drives for Blood Donation: Giving blood can save a life. participation of students in blood donation drives demonstrates a strong dedication to aiding individuals who are critically in need of blood transfusions, frequently in life-threatening circumstances. Teaching in public schools: It is an admirable effort to interact with students from government schools and inform them about various concerns. It not only aids in the academic development of young students but also provides mentorship opportunities, strengthening a feeling of neighbourhood. Students that take part in these activities not only show a dedication to societal wellbeing but also gain vital life skills like leadership, cooperation, and empathy. ISR programmes have a profound impact on students, inspiring them to be good citizens and cultivating a lifelong sense of social responsibility.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

The institution consistently carries out performance evaluations of its staff. Based on these assessments, deserving individuals receive promotions accompanied by appropriate salary adjustments. Criteria for assessing staff performance include teaching proficiency, research contributions, participation or organization of Faculty Development Programs (FDPs), mentorship in projects, consultancy roles, and attendance at conferences, among others.

Faculty members are required to complete a self-appraisal form, which is then validated and endorsed by department heads. These forms are subsequently presented to senior management for further consideration. Candidates eligible for promotion must go through an interview process with a panel. Those selected after the interview will receive promotions, and their updated salaries will be effective from the date of their promotion.

Last year, numerous faculty members from various departments received promotions. Salary adjustments were made based on their appraisals.

Appraisals offer insights into areas of job performance that need enhancement and potential career development. Department heads are responsible for conveying these insights and encouraging their team members towards betterment.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

In today's world the humankind is facing many challenges in terms of discrimination, human rights violation, and many others physical and geographical challenges. Women are one section of the society who are still struggling to find that equality and dignity one requires to live in this society.

It is imperative to take measures to make sure the women are aware of their rights and laws to make them feel secure, confident and equal to their male counterparts.

DSCASC as an Institution has set up Women's Dignity Cell -Shakthi to take these measures.

The cell has been constituted by IQAC to bring awareness among all staff and students towards gender sensitization.

Continuing this precedence set many years ago to promote gender equality and gender sensitization Women's Dignity Cell- SHAKTHI continues to strive towards this by conducting various programmes for students and faculties of DSCASC for the year 2022-23. Gender equity and sensitization programs in curricular and cocurricular activities for women in campus are conducted. Cell conducted regular awareness raising sessions for Girl students and Women staff on sexual harassment issues and the benefit of these programs is to promote behaviors that create an atmosphere that ensures gender equality and equal opportunities.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

At DSCASC, both the curriculum and extracurricular activities are used to sensitize both students and staff. The college has introduced a course named Constitution of India at the degree level that raises understanding of constitutional duties and democratic values. Moreover, there is a curriculum called "Environmental studies" that teaches students about environmental regulations including the Wildlife Protection Act, the Forest Act, and international environmental pacts, among others.

The fundamental duties and rights of Indian citizens are promoted through a variety of academic and extracurricular events organized by faculty members from all areas. Students often take part in a variety of initiatives, such as webinars, conferences, and expert speeches, which have improved their understanding of these issues. Additionally, lectures, workshops, and student-focused events are held on subjects like gender equality, sexual harassment, and the right to information. The College has lively celebrations for Republic Day, Independence Day, and Samvidhan Divas, world environment day.

Institution encouraged students to follow a variety of behaviors that support the "Unity in Diversity" of our homeland. The ECO cell has organized student-focused events like painting, collage, essay competitions, and rallies to raise awareness of the environment. These events have attracted a significant amount of student participation.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science, and Commerce is renowned for commitment to excellence and fostering of academic brilliance. Each year, the institute's Planning Committee consisting of the Principal, IQAC, and Heads of Departments meets to discuss strategies for achieving a dynamic learning environment. DSCASC has consistently achieved good admissions results for its UG and PG programmes over the last five years. The college also recognizes the importance of social outreach and student-centric activities which are achieved through initiatives such as the wings of NSS, Rotaract, Student Council and departmental clubs. In order to develop physical skills, team spirit, and confidence among students, DSCASC organizes annual sports events in disciplines such as cricket, volleyball, throw ball, kabaddi, chess, and carom, while it celebrates International Yoga Day each year. In addition, the institute has adopted Project Based Learning in most of its programs to ensure that students attend professional lectures and workshops that enhance their analytical and creative thinking capabilities. Finally, the institute also helps students to make informed career decisions through its career guidance and placement services. All these initiatives have contributed to the success of DSCASC and the overall academic excellence of its students.

Part B

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

The Curriculum is designed by the Bangalore University through its Board of Studies and Academic Council. The affiliated colleges implement the same. University makes provision for the appointment of teachers as BoE and Committee members. Faculty members also enrich themselves by attending Orientation Programs, FDPs, Seminars, and Conferences.

Initiatives taken for effective curriculum delivery:

- Academic Calendar and Diary are maintained. It is cross checked by the coordinator periodically.
- The college encourages teachers to prepare Lesson Plans which provide space for planning the lessons, and make note of effective classroom strategies to be adopted, time allocation, etc.
- Well provided library and Inflibnet facility also ensure opportunities for effective curriculum delivery.
- Student feedback on learning, teaching and curriculum forms a component of a system for quality improvement.
- Confirming to the stakeholders that the college is committed to the achievement and maintenance of effective teaching and learning.

Examples of effective implementation of curriculum:

Hands on Training - The Students are made aware of the curriculum through practical experience.

Academic and Industrial Linkage benefits the students to gain hands-on experience of how industry operations are executed, bridge the gap between theoretical and practical learning in a real-life environment. It enhances interpersonal and communication skills.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Programme and course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website and communicated to teachers and students.

The Department has outlined the Program's and all of its Courses' learning objectives in explicit terms. The department uses the following method to inform teachers and students of the learning objectives.

- For the convenience of the teachers and students, hard copies of the syllabi and learning outcomes are available in the departments.
- For reference, a soft copy of the curriculum and the learning outcomes for each programme and course are also uploaded on the college website.
- The teachers were informed of the significance of the learning objectives during department meetings at the beginning of each semester.
- Through the department's induction programme, the students are also made aware of the same.
- The teachers of each course inform the students of the course objectives at the beginning of the course along with the syllabus.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

Using the established course outcomes as a guide, the faculty uses a continuous evaluation procedure to track each student's progress.

A few of the most important measures of accomplishment are:

1. University examination for the semester: As a Bangalore University-affiliated institution, Dayananda Sagar College of Art, Science, and Commerce students are required to sit for exams according to the semester and annual schedules established by the university. Through these exams, the college evaluates the program's success based on the students' course attainment levels, which are set by the programme. 2. Practical Assessment/External Assessment: It is reviewed by asking outside professionals who have been appointed by the institution to assess each student by doing Viva-Voce interviews, performing practical examinations, and examining practical files. 3. Results Analysis: At the conclusion of each semester, each course's results are analyzed using bar charts that show the proportion of students that fall into certain CGPA categories. 4. This is a useful indication for determining whether POs, PSOs, and COs are meeting the university's requirements for level of accomplishment. 5. Placements and Internships: Students are encouraged to participate in fieldwork, projects, internships, etc. The college's placement cell assists and polishes pupils in accordance with industry standards and offers plenty of chances for students to land jobs in prestigiousbusinesses.

3.4 - Extension Activities

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR), is a potent tool for fostering a sense of civic duty in students and making a positive impact on society.13 activities were held, helping 464 students overall. The actions carried out by ISR were diverse and planned, concentrating on important societal concerns: Health and Hygiene, Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, Students participated and helped to keep the surrounding a better and healthier place by raising awareness and acting to clean up their surroundings. Hospital visits: Visiting hospital patients is a very humane gesture. In addition to providing solace for the ill and old, it teaches students empathy and the need of helping those in need. Donations to Orphanages: Students help needy children by contributing food, medication, and school supplies to orphanages. Drives for Blood Donation: Giving blood can save a life. participation of students in blood donation drives demonstrates a strong dedication to aiding individuals who are critically in need of blood transfusions, frequently in life-threatening circumstances. Teaching in public schools: It is an admirable effort to interact with students from government schools and inform them about various concerns. It not only aids in the academic development of young students but also provides mentorship opportunities, strengthening a feeling of neighbourhood. Students that take part in these activities not only show a dedication to societal well-being but also gain vital life skills like leadership, cooperation, and empathy. ISR programmes have a profound impact on students, inspiring them to be good citizens and cultivating a lifelong sense of social responsibility.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

The institution consistently carries out performance evaluations of its staff. Based on these assessments, deserving individuals receive promotions accompanied by appropriate salary adjustments. Criteria for assessing staff performance include teaching proficiency, research contributions, participation or organization of Faculty Development Programs (FDPs), mentorship in projects, consultancy roles, and attendance at conferences, among others.

Faculty members are required to complete a self-appraisal form, which is then validated and endorsed by department heads. These forms are subsequently presented to senior management for further consideration. Candidates eligible for promotion must go through an interview process with a panel. Those selected after the interview will receive promotions, and their updated salaries will be effective from the date of their promotion.

Last year, numerous faculty members from various departments received promotions. Salary adjustments were made based on their appraisals.

Appraisals offer insights into areas of job performance that need enhancement and potential career development. Department heads are responsible for conveying these insights and encouraging their team members towards betterment.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

In today's world the humankind is facing many challenges in terms of discrimination, human rights violation, and many others physical and geographical challenges. Women are one section of the society who are still struggling to find that equality and dignity one requires to live in this society.

It is imperative to take measures to make sure the women are aware of their rights and laws to make them feel secure, confident and equal to their male counterparts.

DSCASC as an Institution has set up Women's Dignity Cell -Shakthi to take these measures.

The cell has been constituted by IQAC to bring awareness among all staff and students towards gender sensitization.

Continuing this precedence set many years ago to promote gender equality and gender sensitization Women's Dignity Cell- SHAKTHI continues to strive towards this by conducting various programmes for students and faculties of DSCASC for the year 2022-23. Gender equity and sensitization programs in curricular and cocurricular activities for women in campus are conducted. Cell conducted regular awareness raising sessions for Girl students and Women staff on sexual harassment issues and the benefit of these programs is to promote behaviors that create an atmosphere that ensures gender equality and equal opportunities.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

At DSCASC, both the curriculum and extracurricular activities are used to sensitize both students and staff. The college has introduced a course named Constitution of India at the degree level that raises understanding of constitutional duties and democratic values. Moreover, there is a curriculum called "Environmental studies" that teaches students about environmental regulations including the Wildlife Protection Act, the Forest Act, and international environmental pacts, among others.

The fundamental duties and rights of Indian citizens are promoted through a variety of academic and extracurricular events organized by faculty members from all areas. Students often take part in a variety of initiatives, such as webinars, conferences, and expert speeches, which have improved their understanding of these issues. Additionally, lectures, workshops, and student-focused events are held on subjects like gender equality, sexual harassment, and the right to information. The College has lively celebrations for Republic Day, Independence Day, and Samvidhan Divas, world environment day.

Institution encouraged students to follow a variety of behaviors that support the "Unity in Diversity" of our homeland. The ECO cell has organized student-focused events like painting, collage, essay competitions, and rallies to raise awareness of the environment. These events have attracted a significant amount of student participation.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Best Practice - 1

1. Title of the Practice

Alumni - An Extended Arm

2. Objectives of the Practice

This practiced was intended for blended learning, alumni teaches and helps students in seeking better knowledge and better exposure to the corporate world while seeking placements.

3. The Context

Students from commerce, management, computers and science stream get exposures as per domain requirement. Alongside cross offers can be generated through this endeavour.

4. The Practice

The practice continued to help present pupils through peer and blended learning, GDs, Brainstorming. PPT (Pre Placement Talk), Technical assistance, Value based sessions to impart on field idea before final placements.

5. Evidence of Success

This endeavour assured about the employability rate of students as self-employed, start-ups, placements for jobs specially for Post graduate students.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

All alumni/alumnus under one roof, at one time is hassle. Arrangement of sessions to students on weekdays is challenge. Strategic plan for same can solve problem to a great extent.

7. Notes (Optional)

Such endeavour at UG level is motivating students for future perspective and really an extended arm to a college as PG students get placed easily with a good confidence.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science, and Commerce is renowned for commitment to excellence and fostering of academic brilliance. Each year, the institute's Planning Committee consisting of the Principal, IQAC, and Heads of Departments meets to discuss strategies for achieving a dynamic learning environment. DSCASC has consistently achieved good admissions results for its UG and PG programmes over the last five years.

The college also recognizes the importance of social outreach and student-centric activities which are achieved through initiatives such as the wings of NSS, Rotaract, Student Council and departmental clubs. In order to develop physical skills, team spirit, and confidence among students, DSCASC organizes annual sports events in disciplines such as cricket, volleyball, throw ball, kabaddi, chess, and carom, while it celebrates International Yoga Day each year. In addition, the institute has adopted Project Based Learning in most of its programs to ensure that students attend professional lectures and workshops that enhance their analytical and creative thinking capabilities. Finally, the institute also helps students to make informed career decisions through its career guidance and placement services. All these initiatives have contributed to the success of DSCASC and the overall academic excellence of its students.
