Report on HR Club Activity – Flip and Gain

On 22nd December at 3PM to 4PM, HR Club-YUKTHI along with its members organized an event titled “Flip and Gain”. This event was exclusively organized for First Semester BBA/B.COM students. It was an Group Activity.

Participants were divided into groups; there will be 5-6 members in each group. There will be 3 cups given for each team. Any 3 members from the group were instructed to flip the paper cups, once the cup is flipped on the table any one member from their group were told to pick a HR chit which had a HR term in it, the participant who picked the chit had to enact the word to his team members and his / her team members had to identify the word. If the team identify the word correctly team will gain one point, later they were allowed to move the cups in the tic-tac-toe form. 1min time was allotted for enacting and 1 min for identifying the given word , there was no time limit kept for flipping the cup.

The participants of winning team were evaluated on the basis quickly flipping the glass enacting thee word and identifying the right word. The focus of this event was to test the participants knowledge on the HR Terms and also the coordination and time sense among the members..

In total 20 participants took part in the event/activity with 6 groups. And one team was the Winner’s and another was the Runner up’s. The event commenced by sharing the rules and regulation for the participants.
