Report on HR Club Orientation

HR Club –YUKTHI along with its members organized an orientation session for all the students of BBA/B.Com with a special focus on all the 1st Sem BBA/B.Com students of Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science & Commerce on 07.11.2022, from 3.00 PM- 4.00 PM in Building No. 13 classroom no 202. The event commenced by sharing the HR Club's objectives and the significance of the Human Resource Club. The event accomplished its purpose with the Principal of Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science & Commerce Dr Nagaraj Shenoy sharing some of the practical purposes why a student must enrol in such club activities. He concluded his talk with some vital examples which showcase on the significance of the HR department and the complications involved in handling the employee workforce.

The student coordinator further executed the programme with Two team Building activities with the purpose to evoke team spirit among the participant who had gathered from various semesters of BBA/B.Com. There was two activities scheduled by dividing the participants into two teams, and each team was given chance to portray their team spirit. The first event titled Build your sail, was team build activity. The objective of this game was to illustrate how teams use the given resources at their best and create a boat. The team members were assessed based on their leadership skills, team coordination, communication, creativity and time limits. Second activity titled, 'Build the Pyramid'; this game illustrated how the participant can execute the task within a limited time by applying different techniques to achieve the final goal. There were 54 student participants. The event concluded by giving the chocolates as a token of appreciation for their active participation.
