23.	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The college inter competition Throw-ball tournament was held on 01/10/2024 at Global Institute of Management Science. This was an exciting chance where students from different colleges took part and worked for teamwork coordination to promote sportsmanship and passion towards the game. The objective and the motive of the tournament were to make the event appealing to participants from different colleges and display their respective talents on this inter-college festival. Our college aptly stood with the 1 st place (winner prize). All together it was a revitalizing, fortifying and learning experience for our students and looking forward for more opportunities to participate in future such more awards in future.
