Orientation Session Report on Open Elective Course

Orientation Programme on Open Elective Course for III SEM BBA Students was conducted on 13th October 2022 by the department of BBA/B.Com. The objective of the Programme was to create awareness among the students about the Open Elective Course that Bangalore University has introduced where the students are required to take one subject as their open elective subject from different discipline other than Commerce or Management. Students chose two Open Elective course paper namely Eco- Tourism and Economic in Insurance from the discipline of Bachelors of Arts. The coordinating faculty highlighted on the significance of each elective paper. All those students who participated in the had a lot of clarifications and all those apprehensions that the students had were addressed systematically and duly clarified by the coordinating faculty during the Q&A.
