EVENT REPORT
“Quiz competition”

Department: B.COM /BBA

Date: 07/07//2023

The quiz competition was conducted by Hindi Parishad – Vedanta for DSCASC students of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd year. The event took place at DSI CAMPUS, Block no-13, Room no-210, starting from 3:00 pm onwards.

Event Structure:

First Round:

The first round of the quiz competition focused on questions related to Hindi Sahitya (literature). Participants were tested on their knowledge of famous Hindi literary works, authors, poets, and literary movements.

Second Round:

In the second round, questions were based on Language Development in India. Participants were quizzed on the history and evolution of languages in India, including the influence of various linguistic traditions and the development of regional languages.

Third Round:

The third round cantered on questions related to different kinds of business, interview & emotions of the person. Participants were challenged with questions about the company work, vocabulary, and phonetics during interview, HR role play in company as well as its regional variations and dialects.

Outcome:

Through this quiz competition, students had the opportunity to deepen their understanding of the Hindi language and its rich cultural heritage. By engaging with questions spanning Hindi literature, language development in India, and linguistic nuances, participants were able to broaden their knowledge and appreciation of Hindi as a language. The event not only provided a platform for intellectual engagement but also facilitated learning and exploration of Hindi language and its history.
