7.1.4 Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and Sensitization of students and employees to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science and Commerce is dedicated to cultivating a morally upright nation of young people. The college organizes various initiatives to uphold ethical, cultural, and spiritual values among its faculty and staff. Commemorative days are observed on campus to foster emotional and religious feelings among faculty and students, providing entertainment, relaxation, and social harmony. Regional and cultural celebrations, such as Teacher's Day, Fresher Party, Rally, Women's Day, Yoga Day, and festivals, are also organized to teach tolerance and harmony.

The college is proactive in providing an inclusive environment, sensitizing students to the cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, and socio-economic diversities of the state and the nation. It celebrates cultural and regional festivals like Youth Festival and Constitution Day to teach tolerance and harmony. The Gender Equality Policy focuses on equal access, opportunities, and rights for women and men.

Through various curricular and extracurricular activities, the college strives to continuously cultivate students and staff as better citizens by making them aware of their constitutional obligations regarding values, rights, duties, and responsibilities. During national festivals, the institute raises the flag and invites notable individuals to motivate students and staff by sharing the characteristics of freedom fighters and highlighting the obligations of citizens.

The college makes decisions based on fundamental principles and promotes student involvement in National Service Scheme (NSS) and sports and games. The institution is proud to have introduced the Plantation Program, which goes beyond providing students with a strong academic foundation to help them become better citizens of the nation. Faculty members from all departments plan various extracurricular and academic events to promote awareness of the Fundamental Rights and Duties of Indian Citizens.

Dayananda Sagar College takes steps to prepare the next generation of leaders to inherit human values and fulfill their constitutional obligations through awareness campaigns, orientation programs, training programs, seminars, and workshops. Activities involving debates and elocution cover a variety of subjects, including ethical values and citizens' rights, obligations, and responsibilities.
