Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The Guest Lecture was organized by BBA Department on 8 th September 2026 for the 5 th Semester BBA – Section A and B students on the topic Commodity Trading: From Physical Markets to Digital Platforms. The session provided students with an opportunity to connect their theoretical knowledge of financial markets with practical applications. Through discussions and examples, students gained insights into how commodities such as gold, silver, crude oil, agricultural products, and base metals are traded and how economic, geopolitical, and market factors influence their prices. The interactive nature of the session encouraged students to ask questions, analyse market situations, and develop a better understanding of commodity trading and risk management.
