24.	Summary of the Event	Student Activity Cell (SANCHALANA) under Department of BBA, Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science & Commerce organized "HENNA HUES - 2025" under the guidance of IQAC in association with Cultural Committee (AMEYA) on 22 nd September 2025 near Buddha Statue, Building No. 13. Theme of the event was Bridal Mehendi. Mehendi is a traditional art form, this allowed students to connect with cultural heritage. Students came up with their artistic talents and creativity through intricate designs. Total 27 teams participated with great enthusiasm. Prof Balwant Kaur Uppal from MBA and Prof Geethashree K from BBA/B.Com were the judges for the event. Ms. Tejaswini from III Semester B.Com Sec 'D' was the winner and Ms. Rohini V from V Semester B.Com Sec 'C' was runner-up. The program was well organized and became an unforgettable experience for all the student participants involved. This program was a resounding success.

Feedback Report

Mehndi Contest - 22nd September

I am pleased to share my feedback as a participant in the Mehndi Contest conducted on 22nd September 2025. The event was excellently organised and provided a meaningful platform for showcasing artistic talent and Cultural Creativity. The Contest was managed in a systematic and professional manner. The instructions were clear, materials were well-arranged, and the schedule was followed smoothly. The organizers ensured that every participant was comfortable and well-informed. The Contest gave me an excellent opportunity to express my creativity through mehndi designs. The environment was encouraging, and I felt motivated to perform my best. It was also inspiring to observe the creativity and unique styles of other participants. The judging process was transparent and fair. The feedback provided by the judges was constructive and motivating, giving me confidence to further enhance my skills.

The mehndi Contest on 22nd September 2025 was not only a competition but also a valuable learning experience. I look forward to participating in more such events in the future.
