24.	Summary of the Event	As part of institutional industry engagement, the Corporate Connect Unit of IQAC organized an Internship Drive in association with ISiri Farm, a sustainable living and farm products enterprise, with whom the institution has an MoU. The selection process comprised two Group Discussion rounds and one Personal Interview round. A total of 15 students participated, including 9 students from BBA and 6 students from B.Com. 3 students are selected for internship. The initiative provided practical exposure to sustainable business practices, strengthened industry readiness, and reinforced academia-industry collaboration, contributing effectively to NAAC quality benchmarks and experiential learning outcomes.
