REPORT ON I INTERNAL TEST – BBA
Academic Year 2026–2027(ODD Semester)

Date of Examination: 21st September 2026 to 24th September 2026
Semesters: I, III and V BBA

The I Internal Test for I, III and V Semester BBA students was conducted from 21st September 2026 to 24th September 2026 as per the examination schedule. The examination was conducted to assess the students' academic progress and their preparedness for the forthcoming university examinations.

The internal test was conducted in a systematic manner with the cooperation of the faculty members, examination coordinators and students. The examination process was monitored to ensure discipline, adherence to the examination schedule and compliance with the institutional rules.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION

The details of student participation in the I Internal Test are as follows:

Semester	Total Students	Students Appeared	Students Absent	Students Not Allowed Due to Non-Payment of Fees
I Semester BBA	180	161	19	Nil
III Semester BBA	144	94	44	6
V Semester BBA	145	109	31	5
Total	469	364	94	11

The examination was conducted in accordance with the institutional rules and regulations. Students who had not paid the prescribed college fees were not permitted to take up the I Internal Test.

In addition, students who had an acute shortage of attendance were not permitted to write the examination until they brought their parents/guardians to the college for discussion and clarification regarding their attendance status. This measure was taken to ensure compliance with the college's attendance requirements and to emphasize the importance of regular attendance.

The concerned students were informed about the requirements and were advised to resolve the attendance-related issues through the appropriate institutional process.

OVERALL CONDUCT OF THE EXAMINATIONS

The examination schedule was organised across four consecutive days, with separate sessions allocated for the different semesters. The arrangement enabled students from the 1st, 3rd, and 5th Semesters to appear for their respective subjects according to the prescribed timetable.

The I Internal Test was conducted smoothly from 21st to 24th September 2026. Faculty members were assigned examination-related responsibilities, including invigilation and maintaining discipline in the examination halls. Students who were eligible to appear for the examination were permitted to write the tests according to the prescribed timetable.

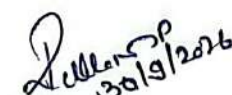

The examination process was monitored to ensure:

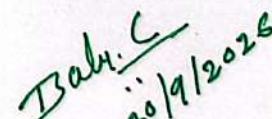

- Proper seating and orderly conduct of students.
- Adherence to the prescribed examination timetable.
- Maintenance of discipline in the examination halls.
- Proper invigilation by faculty members.
- Compliance with college fee and attendance requirements.
- Identification and documentation of students who were absent or not eligible to appear for the examination.

CONCLUSION

A total of 469 students were enrolled across the three semesters, of which 364 students appeared for the examination. Students who had not paid their college fees were not allowed to appear for the test, and students with acute attendance shortages were required to bring their parents/guardians before being permitted to write the examination. The I Internal Test provided a comprehensive academic assessment for students of the 1st, 3rd, and 5th Semesters. The subjects assessed both foundational and advanced knowledge relevant to commerce, management, finance, taxation, accounting, and related disciplines. The examination timetable provided a structured arrangement of sessions across the four days and covered the prescribed subjects for each semester. The successful completion of the I Internal Test reflects the coordinated efforts of the faculty members, examination coordinators and students in maintaining the academic and examination procedures of the institution.
