24.	Summary of the Event	A High Impact Presentation Skills session was conducted for IV Semester BCA students to improve their communication and professional skills. The session taught students how to organize their presentations properly, start and end effectively, and speak clearly and confidently. They learned how to understand their audience, prepare simple and effective slides, and use body language, eye contact, and voice modulation to make their presentation better. Students also participated in practice activities and mock presentations to reduce stage fear and speak more confidently. The session helped them prepare for seminars, project presentations, and job interviews, supporting their academic and career growth.
