24.	Summary of the Event	The Department of BCA organized a series of engaging events on different dates, including Pictionary, Object Transfer, and Pick and Speak, to promote holistic student development. Pictionary enhanced creativity, teamwork, and visual communication skills as participants expressed concepts through drawings. Object Transfer encouraged coordination, collaboration, and strategic thinking by requiring teams to complete tasks under specific constraints. Pick and Speak strengthened public speaking abilities by prompting students to deliver short speeches on randomly selected topics, improving confidence and spontaneity. Collectively, these activities provided an interactive learning environment that fostered communication skills, leadership qualities, critical thinking, and active student participation.

2nd Sem, 'A'

The Object transformation game conducted by our Teacher was very interesting and enjoyable. The activity used a single white board marker and students had to imagine it as a different objects and act accordingly.

This game helped us to improve our creativity and imagination.

Everyone totally involved and enjoyed to the fullest in the activity.
