23.	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The event From Idea to Funding: Crafting Successful Research Grant Proposals focused on the essential steps involved in securing research funding. It emphasized creating the strategy for identifying impactful ideas and framing them into a coherent proposal. The importance of proposal writing was discussed, highlighting how to effectively communicate research objectives and methodologies. A key component of the event was understanding comments from reviewers. Participants learned how to respond to feedback and refine their proposals accordingly. Attendees were also provided with a list of funding agencies to help them target the right sources of support for their research. The event covered the development of proposals, stressing how to align them with the expectations of evaluators, who look for clarity, innovation, and feasibility. Additionally, practical advice was given on what documents to be furnished during the application process, such as budgets, timelines, and credentials. By addressing all these points, the event aimed to equip researchers with the tools needed to successfully navigate the competitive grant application process.
