24.	Summary of the Event	The Department of BCOM, organized a Finance club Activity for BCOM students. The objective of the activity was to help students understand the importance of saving regularly and developing financial discipline at an early stage. The session covered practical strategies such as preparing a monthly budget, avoiding unnecessary expenses, building an emergency fund, and exploring simple saving options like recurring deposits, fixed deposits, and SIPs. Students actively participated in discussions and shared their spending habits, which made the session interactive and engaging. The activity successfully emphasized that consistent savings form the foundation for future investment and financial security.

Sub: Feedback on finance club session - "Smart Savings for Smart Students".

I am sharing this feedback letter to share my feedback on the recent finance club session. The session was highly informative, practical and very relevant to us as students.

I appreciate the discussion on importance of saving money, ways to cut down unnecessary or very frequent expenses. The interactive activities and real-life scenarios made the session engaging and helped us connect the concepts to our daily lives.

Thank you for organizing such a valuable program.

Yours Sincerely,
Shalini. D.

Subject: Feedback on Finance Club Session - Smart Saving for Smart Students.

Dear Finance Club Coordinator,

I would like to share my feedback on the finance club session titled "Smart Saving for Smart Students". The session was very informative and practical for students like us. The speaker clearly explained the importance of saving money at a young age and how managing small amounts wisely can lead to financial stability in the future.

The session was interactive and engaging, with real-life examples that made the topic more relatable. I especially found the tips on maintaining a personal budget and developing financial discipline very useful.

Yours sincerely,

Sinchana.R.K
