24.	Summary of the Event	The AI for Management Ideathon, organised by Cavedai AI Training for HR, on 22 August 2026, brought together 46 teams from various colleges, providing a platform for innovation and competitive problem-solving. Nine students from the Department of Computer Applications – MCA, DSCASC, participated in the event, with two teams successfully advancing to the final round among the six shortlisted teams. Although they did not secure a winning position, the experience provided valuable exposure and practical learning. On 27 August 2026, COE – Big Data Technology organised a post-event review and reflection session to analyse their performance and identify areas for improvement. The session enabled the students to gain valuable insights and develop effective strategies for future competitions.
