24	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The Department of Commerce and Management organized Lumina 2026, a farewell program for the outgoing batch of 2023-2026, on 30 May 2026. The event provided an opportunity for students to celebrate their journey and create lasting memories. Juniors entertained the seniors through vibrant dance performances, engaging drama presentations, and melodious songs, making the occasion joyful and memorable. As a mark of appreciation, the department presented appreciation letters to students who had actively served as volunteers in various clubs, the Cultural Committee, the ISR Cell, and the NSS Unit. The program concluded with heartfelt wishes for the graduating students' future success.

FEEDBACK FOR FAREWELL:-

The College Farewell was a wonderful and memorable event. It gave us an opportunity to celebrate our journey, share memories and spend quality time with our classmates and teachers. The arrangement, performance and overall atmosphere were excellent. Thank you to the organizers and faculty members for making the event special and unforgettable. It was a perfect way to end our college life with happy memories.
