Report on the Language Conference

Organized by: Hindi Parishad - Vedanta in association with Language and Literary Unit, Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science and Commerce

Under the Guidance of: IQAC

Theme: "Language in the Digital Age: Evolution, Revolutions, and Challenges"

Date: Saturday, 29th March 2025

Time: 10:00 AM onwards

Venue: C.D. Sagar Auditorium

A language conference on the theme "Language in the Digital Age: Evolution, Revolutions, and Challenges" was organized by the Language and Literary Unit of Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science and Commerce under the valuable guidance of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). The event took place on Saturday, 29th March 2025, at 10:00 AM in the C.D. Sagar Auditorium.

Program Overview:

The conference began with a formal introduction, setting the context for the day's events. It was followed by a cultural performance, which added a traditional and vibrant flavor to the academic gathering. The atmosphere was further enriched with a Mangalacharan song, invoking an auspicious start to the program.

The ceremonial lighting of the lamp was conducted in the presence of distinguished guests and faculty members, symbolizing the dispelling of ignorance through the light of knowledge.

The welcome address was delivered by a member of the organizing committee, expressing gratitude and setting the tone for the day. The Principal's presidential remarks highlighted the importance of language in the digital era and praised the initiative for its relevance and timeliness.

Following this, all guest speakers were felicitated, acknowledging their contributions and expertise in the field of language and literature.

Discussion Sessions:

The academic deliberations commenced with Dr. M.C., who shared insightful perspectives on the transformation of language in the digital age, particularly how technology has influenced linguistic expression and communication patterns.

Dr. Padmini Nagaraju focused on the role of regional languages and the threat of digital extinction, emphasizing preservation strategies through modern platforms.

Scholar Harisha Haggalawadi spoke on linguistic revolutions, analyzing how social media, AI, and digital content creation have redefined grammar, vocabulary, and linguistic norms.

Dr. Ramkali Sharma concluded the panel with her talk on the challenges faced by traditional languages and the ethical implications of AI-driven language tools.

Interactive Session:

A question-and-answer session followed, where students and faculty actively engaged with the speakers. Questions ranged from concerns about the future of mother tongues to the integration of technology in language learning.

Conclusion:

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, in which the organizers expressed heartfelt gratitude to the speakers, participants, faculty, and students whose presence and participation made the conference a grand success.

Outcome:

The conference was a rich confluence of ideas, encouraging intellectual discussion on the dynamic role of language in the digital era. It served as a valuable platform for students and scholars alike to understand the multifaceted challenges and opportunities posed by digital transformation in linguistic domains.
